

Amy Barg | Intro

Speaker | Growth Environment Specialist
Executive Director, The John Maxwell Team

Surprises tend to be things we remember.

So, here are a few surprises about Amy:

- In her first lead in a musical... she danced on a table.
- She gave birth to her first child... before she was 21.
- Her first time ziplining... happened at age 51.
- She was called onto the stage by Oprah at a taping of her show because ... she was wearing green.
- Amy believes we feel most comfortable when things are certain, but we feel most alive ... when they're not.

Help me welcome Amy to the stage.
